

Mischief Farm Credentials, History, and Experience

Susan Evans

Susan has the following experience, skills, and work history:

- Over fifty years of riding and showing experience
- Over forty years of teaching and training experience
- Certified in dressage instruction since 2002 (American Riding Instructors Association)
- Certified in barn management since 2002 (American Riding Instructors Association)
- IEL School Representative for various schools over the past ten years
- Former board member Santa Clarita Valley CDS chapter (three years as webmaster, schooling show manager, and membership)
- Former board member Tri-Valley Horse Show Association (ten years as webmaster, points director, membership head, and show manager)
- Equine nutrition and supplement expert

Elizabeth Evans

Elizabeth has the following experience, accomplishments, skills, and work history:

- Over eighteen years of riding and showing experience
- Over ten years teaching and training experience
- Founding member of the Sierra Canyon School Equestrian team in 2009
- Current IEL School Representative for the Sierra Canyon School (six years in this position)
- Former Board member Tri-Valley Horse Show Association (seven years as webmaster, social media, and email campaign manager)
- Current employee of the Interscholastic Equestrian League (over two years as webmaster, social media and email campaign manager, Paypal expert, forms designer, show management, and all other everyday tasks, working closely with the President of the organization)
- Rode in the USHJA Emerging Athletes Program clinics in 2009 (inaugural year) and 2012
- Participated in the USHJA Horsemanship Quiz Challenge National Finals twice, including the inaugural year in 2012, and was on that year's Zone 10 silver medal winning team
- Coached one of our Mischief Farm junior riders to the IEL Year-End Reserve Champion Award in the Freshman Jumpers Division in 2014
- Coached one of our Mischief Farm junior riders through the USHJA Horsemanship Quiz Challenge National Finals in 2014 to the Zone 10 bronze medal winning team
- Has participated in the USHJA Horsemanship Quiz Trainers Stable Challenge for the four years it has been run (2013 to 2016) and was the winning trainer all four years for Zone 10, the only trainer in the country to win her zone's title all four years
- Has assisted and lectured at the USHJA Emerging Athletes Program and Horsemanship Quiz Challenge National Finals in Ohio for the past two years, and won the "Outstanding Education Ambassador" award in 2015

Elizabeth has ridden or cliniced with the following experts:

- Melanie Smith Taylor (Olympic gold medalist) in the 2009 Emerging Athletes Program
- Will Simpson (Olympic gold medalist) in a private clinic

- Anne Kursinski (Olympic silver medalist) in the 2012 Emerging Athletes Program
- Linda Allen (Olympic course designer) in a private clinic
- Jeff Cook (national clinician) in a private clinic
- Liz Denny (local jumper trainer and Grand Prix rider) in lessons and private clinics

Elizabeth is a national ambassador for the following:

- USHJA Horsemanship Quiz Challenge program
- Seaver “Smart Girth” products
- Perfect Products Elite Rider
- “It’s a Haggerty’s” equine clothing and custom products

Elizabeth is sponsored by the following companies and individuals:

- Perfect Products (Perfect Prep, ProtEQtor, and other horse health products)
- HorseTech (Glanzen and ReitSport products)
- “It’s a Haggerty’s” equine clothing and custom products
- Sound Horse Technology (glue-on shoe manufacturer)
- Optimum Performance Institute
- MDC Stirrups
- Neuropsychology Partners
- Lee Yelenics

Elizabeth has been featured or mentioned in the following press releases, online, and print articles:

- In Stride Magazine (the national USHJA publication) in January 2013, May 2013, September 2013, September 2014, January 2015, May 2015, September 2015, January 2016, and May 2016
- California Riding Magazine (trainer profile as three-time winning trainer in the HQC Trainer’s Stable Challenge, Perfect Products spokesperson, and USHJA National HQC finals articles)
- Perfect Products Facebook page (noted as their Elite Rider representative at the HQC National Finals)
- USHJA Facebook page (numerous mentions as HQC Trainer Stable Challenge winner, and assistant and lecturer at national finals)
- USHJA email blasts to professionals and members (featured on the front page of the professionals’ blast as a winner of the HQC Trainer’s Stable Challenge, as well many other mentions as a participant, assistant, and lecturer)